

natural selection

Here's a great way to begin your morning – let Danish Selection fruit spreads help in your daily serving of fruits. Containing fine whole berries and fruit pieces, the spreads are not boiled, unlike other jams, thus preserving wholesome natural goodness. Additionally, they are lower in sugar content and contain lesser gelatine than traditional spreads.

Available at leading supermarkets and specialty stores bask in the sun

From 17 to 26 Oct, the Singapore Sun Festival will be back for the second time running. With the intent on celebrating the "Art of Living Well", the festival will encompass music, visual arts, literature, film, wine, cuisine and wellness. On the cuisine front, rub shoulders with visionary gurus and leading chefs – Charlie Trotter, Riccardo Genovesi and Luke Mangan, as they take you on their very own signature epicurean journey.

Log on to www.singaporesunfestival.com for more information

gryphon for gold

Homegrown Gryphon Tea Company was recently presented with a prestigious one star Gold Great Taste Award for its Artisan Selection, Straits Chai. Organised by the Guild of Fine Foods in the UK, the Great Taste Awards is known for its rigorous judging standards. Often referred to as the Oscars of the food industry and having been judged by a list of celebrity judges (including Mark Hix, the chef's chef and Tom Parker-Bowles of UKTV Food's Market Kitchen), this is a big win for the Singapore company. Available at leading supermarkets, select cafes and restaurants

style living

Melbourne-based Salt & Pepper homeware has now found its way into more of our stores! Designed for a generation of fashion-savvy consumers in mind, each piece is a welcoming focal point at dinner parties. The full collection features everything from dinnerware to scented candles, crystal frames and even hat boxes, combining runway chic with bright accents and a smattering of colours. Available at Robinsons, Takashimaya B1 and Tangs

